INTRODUCTION

The papers of Sara Lockwood Williams and Walter Williams; material on their journalistic careers; and information on the founding of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and Walter Williams' presidency of the University, 1931-1935.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the University of Missouri by the Sara L. Williams Estate on 18 August 1961 (Accession No. 3486 and 3487). An addition was made on 8 January 1969 by James G. May (Accession No. 3797).

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Sara Lockwood was born on April 13, 1891, in Rock Port, Missouri, to John and Mary Jane Lockwood. She attended the University of Missouri, where she received her Bachelor of Journalism and M.A. degree. After graduation in 1913 she worked several for newspapers, including the St. Joseph Gazette, Tulsa Times, Philadelphia Ledger, and the Honolulu Star-Bulletin. She returned to Columbia to teach at the University from 1921-1927. Then in 1927 she married Walter William, founder of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and University President, 1931-1935. After his death in 1935, she taught at Yenching University in Peiping, China, and served as director of public relations and associate professor of Journalism at Rockford College, Rockford, Illinois. She returned to Columbia in 1951 and directed the journalism alumni activities at the University of Missouri. She died in 1961.
